Salvation Army – The Salvation Army holds a regular bazaar, and you can usually donate prior to this, check their website for more information.

Yofuku Post – One-day drop-off centres are organized throughout Tokyo. The schedule changes monthly so check this Japanese website. They accept good condition clothes, bedding, and towels.

We 21 Japan – A great charity that has used clothing and homewares stores in Japan and also sends products overseas to support people in need. They do not pick-up product, but you can send in your good conditions clothing and homewares such as tableware and linens. See their Japanese website for details.

Local Ward Offices (Kuyakusho) – Check with your local ward office for clothing donations. Some wards (e.g. Nerima Ward) has a rotating sequence of locations around the area (community center/library/etc.) where one can take bags of clothes/blankets and donate them during designated times.

There are also a number of church-based, and other non-for-profit organisations (including some listed above) that you can apply to volunteer with if you are looking for other ways to help.
